

University of Tennessee College of Nursing
DNP-PhD Program of Study (effective Fall 2021)

Y1	Fall	Spring	Summer
	N601: Philosophy & Knowledge Development for Nursing Science (3) N603: Nursing Inquiry & Research Design (3) Total: 6 hours	N605: Middle-Range Theory for Nursing Science Development (3) N610: Review & Critique of Scientific Literature (3) Total: 6 hours
Y2	Fall	Spring	Summer
	N608: Quantitative Nursing Research (3) N602: Advanced Statistical Methods (3) Total: 6 hours	N606: Grant Writing in Nursing Science (3) N607: Qualitative Nursing Research (3) N611: Advanced Quantitative Nursing Research (3) Total: 9 hours	Milestone: Comprehensive Exam
Y3	Fall	Spring
	N600: Doctoral Research and Dissertation (12) Total: 12 hours	N600: Doctoral Research and Dissertation (12) Total: 12 hours

The following courses/course content must have been covered during the DNP program:

- N599 (Graduate Statistics)
- N609 (Research Practicum)
- N612 (Health Policy)
- N613 (Nursing Leadership in Complex Systems)
- N615 (Research Ethics)
- Cognate II (A course from DNP to act as a cognate)

Substantiation must be provided. If courses were not taken during the DNP program, additional hours of coursework may need to be added to the student's program of study.